Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. James 1:2-4

"The truly victorious sons and daughters are the ones who are willing to die for the cause, and they go right into the realm of heart." "If we don't want the ones, we love the most to carry the cross, we must take it ourselves." "An adopted son can never enter the realm of heart. Only after we become true sons can we go into the realm of heart." SMM "Victorious Sons and Daughters" (Lancaster Gate, London - June 28, 1978)

Hello,

At the beginning of the Sunday Service, we watched a video from Hyung Jin Nim in which he spoke about the danger of the Iran war expanding and the potential threat to world peace.

Then Genn Toffey gave the beginning prayer and spoke about her experience leading a Hoon Dok Hae home study group.

Pastor Kyle gave the main sermon. He started by discussing a passage in the Exposition of the Divine Principle, section 3.2 "Good Object Partners for the Joy of God" which explains that "Joy arises when we have an object partner in which our internal nature and external form are reflected and developed." Our purpose is to become a substantial object partner to God.

Kyle also discussed passages from the Cheon Seong Gyeong, Book 4 on the "True Family" that explain what is the Kingdom of Heaven? It starts with the "textbook of love" that begins with the family.

The family is a textbook of love through which at the time of death you receive the right to be registered at the Palace of Peace and the Kingdom of Heaven. The family is a training ground of love. The extension of this family is the world. The world is made up of smaller worlds: there is a grandfathers' world, a grandmothers' world, a world of fathers and mothers, there are husbands' and wives' worlds and sons' and daughters' worlds. When these combine, we have the whole world. Thus, if you love the people of the whole world as you love God through the family, this will make a straight road to the Kingdom of Heaven. CSG p443

Kyle then discussed the real meaning of God's commandment to "be fruitful" in Genesis 1:28. God's Kingdom is one of expansion from generation to generation. Babies absorb the love of their parents. Next stage is learning to love brothers and sisters (if you don't kill them first!). Kyle's youngest daughter was poking her older sister who was reading a book. She finally asked her sister, Keira, "why are you doing that?" "Because I love you." And then they hugged.

[Foundation Day 11th Anniversary]

Parents learn to give unconditional love even if baby is crying in the middle of the night. The challenges of parenting a teenager are more complex. It's easy to get tired. Difficult times will come.

Kyle smiled and commented about the "magic sock drawer" where clean socks just show up. Many families have a division of labor. He tries to remember to thank Genn for clean socks that just "show up."

The way we say things. "Please" "thank you" are important. Families are a training ground.

[Skylar Duensing Testimony]

Under God and Christ we are of one blood as a family. We learn to love people we normally would not have anything to do with. In a church community, we have shared common ideals such as the 10 Commandments, shared beliefs about the importance of repentance and forgiveness.

Instead of coveting the success and prosperity of others, ask them so you can learn how they did it. Ask, "what is your secret?"

Worshipping together each Sunday is like "a family reunion."

As Jesus and True Father taught us, let each of us become the gateway to Heaven and multiply God's love.
