1.		PUBLISHER’S NOTE TO PRESENTERS: This is an exposition of the main themes of a true love character education curriculum. It is a blueprint for subjects and positions educators should use in presenting these themes in a way appropriate to the target age group.
2.		In every age and every culture, sex is a hotly discussed. It is no surprise that all religions say the same things about sex—it should only be within marriage—and have since the beginning of time. Civilizations come and go, but these religions persist. We need to take them seriously and are going to look at what they say about sex and marriage.
3.		“Free sex” is wrong. It is really selfish sex in the name of freedom. It will destroy all four loves—children’s love, siblings’ love, conjugal love and parental love—and also the family. In Chapter 6 we learned that the free sex culture has been redefined as “safe sex.” But this concept is still false and misleading because it ignores the moral and social damage done when sex is taken outside of marriage. But what is the solution?
4.		Instead of “safe sex” why not “safest sex.” The safest form of sex is within the bonds of marriage. Period. Everyone knows this. Father Moon taught the safest form of sex as absolute purity before marriage and absolute faithfulness after marriage. Thus he coined the term, “absolute sex.” There is an absolute requirement that all people must fulfill, no matter who they are... which is the model of absolute sex. The first stage is maintaining sexual purity prior to getting married... Second is the fidelity in the love of husband and wife.

5.		In absolute sex, there are two parts: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Purity before marriage, and</li> <li>2) Faithful within marriage.</li> </ol> But they are not separate. They complement each other because the best preparation to be faithful during marriage is purity before marriage. Therefore, absolute sex is absolutely good, absolutely holy, absolutely healthy and absolutely safe. It is the gold standard we should all aim for.
6.		How do you practice absolute sex? [Click] Before marriage  [Click] No sex  [Click] After marriage  [Click] No sex [And wait a short moment. People will start to question and wonder about this. They may giggle. Then...] [Click] Outside marriage. It is said this way for a purpose. The best way to prepare for a faithful marriage is to learn to control your sexual desires before getting married. Therefore, being pure before marriage is absolutely the best foundation for being faithful after marriage.
7.		A study of the world's religions discovers that they speak with one voice regarding human sexuality. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Within the bonds of marriage, sex is a blessing and is good because it is for the sake of others.</li> <li>2. Sex outside of marriage is wrong. This includes pre-marital or extra-marital sex of any kind. The religions of the world give warnings about illicit sex. They use the strongest language possible, often in terms of spiritual life-and-death.</li> </ol>
8.	Proper Human Sexuality: All religions affirm the holiness and sacredness of love within marriage.	Proper Human Sexuality: All religions affirm the holiness and sacredness of love within marriage. Again going through scriptures in chronological order.

16.		ISLAM: "... He [Allah] created for you mates from among yourselves ... and He has put love and mercy between your (hearts) ..." - Qur'an 30.21 (Yusufali)
17.		SIKHISM: "Not those are true husband and wife that with each other [merely] consort: Truly wedded are those that in two frames, are as one light." - Adi Granth, Var Suhi, M.3
18.		We conclude from this inherited wisdom one vital truth:  This world was created in order to realize love centered on the family.

This is because together these vices violate both the Dual Purpose Principle and the Pair System Principle.

32.		Matthew 5:27 and following:          “You have heard that it was said,          ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart...”          “If your eye sins... pluck it out...”          “If your hand sins... cut it off...” This verse show how serious adultery is. It also shows the order of immoral behavior. First, looking lustfully with our eyes, and second, touching with our hands. Jesus calls on us to not only control our body, but also clean our mind.

37.		Adi Granth, pg. 672          "The man of lust is not satisfied with any number of women... He sins and then regrets; and so is withered away by sorrow and greed."
38.		One of Father Moon's hallmarks was his fearlessness in speaking out about issues related to the family. Three years before his death, he said,          Immorality and licentiousness in the personal lives of adults ultimately destroy the lives of their children. The reason today's society does not have a level of happiness to match its level of material affluence is that families are being destroyed.
