“The breaking news is an invitation to live your life filled with gratitude and happiness, in celebration and appreciation of others.

It is not about being the kind of religious person who judges, but instead the kind of religious person who has an incredible capacity to love.

It is about raising up beautiful children and inspiring other young people to become a generation worthy of the name "Generation Peace."

This is possible because the world finally has the example of True Parents, who can live and teach this kind of love. It is to this that Rev. and Mrs. Moon have dedicated their entire lives."

The man, with short brown hair, is behind her, wearing a white t-shirt, and has his arm around her shoulder. They are both looking towards the camera with bright, genuine smiles. The background is a bright, out-of-focus outdoor setting, possibly a beach or a park, with sunlight filtering through.

community

Will I benefit?

The word "community" is spelled out using individual letters cut from various colored papers and pinned to a corkboard. The letters are: 'c' (black on white), 'o' (white on black), 'm' (white on yellow), 'M' (red on white), 'u' (purple on white), 'n' (blue on yellow), 'i' (black on white), 'T' (black on white), and 'y' (black on white). Each letter is secured by a pushpin of a different color: red, white, blue, blue, red, red, green, yellow, and yellow respectively.

Do I understand it?
