Join us for a UC Schools Open House!

Hello all,

In case you missed it, YAYAM is hosting an open house for schools that are in some way connected to our community. If you (or your child) are interested in attending a school that focuses on character education, please join us this Friday, November 5th at 8:30 PM EDT on zoom.

Or if you know anyone in your community who might be interested in hearing more about schools like Bridgeport International Academy or New Hope School, feel free to forward this along to them!

Each of the schools in attendance will give a short presentation, which will be followed by breakout sessions where you can ask questions directly each school's representatives. We hope to see you there!

Much love,

The YAYAM Team
