On the 21st, the Honam district's "Invitational Leader's Briefing Session of Victory Commemorating the 4th Memorial Anniversary of Rev. Sun Myung Moon's Seonghwa" is being held at the Kim Dae- Jung Convention Center in Seo-gu in Gwangju City with more than 450 participants attending.

On the 21st, the Honam district's "Invitational Leader's Briefing Session of Victory Commemorating the 4th Memorial Anniversary of Rev. Sun Myung Moon's Seonghwa" is being held at the Kim Dae- Jung Convention Center in Seo-gu in Gwangju City.

In his condolatory video message, Vice-Speaker Ju-Soon Park stated, "Rev. Moon played a big role in peace on the Korean peninsula by meeting Kim Il-Sung in person in the state of deadlock and crisis of North and South Korea." He continued, "Today, in a time when Korean peninsular peace is facing great threat due to North Korean nuclear problems, Rev. Moon's absence seems even greater.”

Vice-Chairman of Gwangju City Council Chun-Su Park stated in his condolatory message, “I would like to extend my gratitude to Dr. Hak Ja Han and to the members of the Unification Church for carrying on Rev. Moon's dedication and will for development and peace in South Korea.” He said, “For us who are still in pain from the division, Rev. Moon's life is like a milestone.”

In his commemorative speech, Kyeong-Seuk Lu said, “Rev. Moon guided us throughout his life as a teacher,” and emphasized, “Over the next four years, Korea and the world will be facing various changes and will have to find solutions for many social problems such as conflicts between social classes, economic crises and low birthrates.”

On this day, Rev. Kyeong-Seuk Lu previously met with the Mayor of Gwangju City Jang-Hyeon Yun, and formed an agreement to make a plan to praise and join Rev. Moon's movements for world peace and unification of the Korean peninsula.

Mayor Jang-Hyeon Yun said, “The conclusion to humanity's pursuit is peace,” and said, “The solution to conflicts and barriers between Youngnam and Honam, or South and North, can be found in Rev. Moon's peace movements.”

The series of regional Invitational Leader's Briefing Sessions were prepared to cast light on the achievements of the peace movements carried out by Rev. Sun Myung Moon and Dr. Hak Ja Han, who have devoted themselves toward the realization of world peace and human salvation. Starting in the Seoul district on the 6th, the sessions will be held in seven districts, including the Incheon-Gyeonggi district, Honam district, Daegu-Gyeongbuk district and the Busan-Gyeongnam district.....
