Family Federation, Joint Service for Sharing Love Held in the Capital Area... 12,000 Believers Gather

The Family Federation for World Peace and Unification held the “2016 4th Anniversary of the Heavenly Ascension Joint Service for Sharing Love in the Capital Area” event at the Olympic Hall in Olympic Park in Bangie, Seoul, on the 16th.

At the Joint Service on this day, 12,000 Family Federation members from Seoul, Gyeonggi, Incheon, and capital areas, Peace Ambassadors and local residents gathered, catalyzing the event.

At 10:30 AM, the Joint Service began with the officiating of Family Federation Headquarters Pastor Jeong-Ho Park, and proceeded in the order of the opening declaration, the Cheon Il Guk anthem, Family Pledge and reporting prayer by western Seoul Pastor Jong-Hyuk Ihm, followed by a viewing of “The Flower of Hope that Blossomed in Heart and Culture,” a commemorative video.

Then the Korean President of the Family Federation, Kyeung-Seuk Lu, delivered a speech titled, “Let the Light of Filial Piety become the Hope of the World.”

President Kyeung-Seuk Lu said, “This 4th anniversary of the heavenly ascension event is a ‘Seonghwa Festival,’ and marked the beginning of heart culture that ushered in the new beginning of the culture of Seonghwa,” and ruminated over the meaning of the 4th anniversary of the heavenly ascension by adding, “Through the 4th anniversary of the heavenly ascension, the viewpoints towards the Family Federation have changed, making summit-level leaders of the world and domestic and foreign medias shed light to the ideals and achievements of Reverend Sun Myung Moon, as well as the activities of the Family Federation meant to transform it into a religion of the people, were handled.”

He then said, “Today, the Family Federation has established the five core policies for the victory of the ‘Vision 2020:’ the diffusion of the new tribal messiah, the constant training of promising, talented individuals, the realization of a happy community of families, religions and cultures based on everyday practice and the realization of peace on the Korean peninsula, moving ahead with detailed policies and strategies specific to the situations of each area around the country,” and further emphasized, “With the coming of this 4th anniversary of the heavenly ascension, I truly hope that all of you can become the hope of the world with the light of filial piety, thus bearing the fruit of heart and culture.”

Through her welcoming message, the Chief Secretary, Won-Ju Jeong, testified to the deep love that Reverend Sun Myung Moon had shown to humankind and all living things throughout his whole life, and expressed how moved she was by saying, “I am sure the presence of Reverend Sun Myung Moon is here to today at the service, warmly gazing, smiling and embracing the members.”

He then went on to deliver a message by Dr. Hak Ja Han saying, “The Korean church is the ‘eldest son’s house of providence.’ Please help realize ‘Vision 2020’ as a religion of the people, according to the status and reputation of the eldest son’s house,” and further emphasized, “I hope we may become one until there is victory and honor, and that we can do our best in fulfilling our filial piety and expressing our affections. May the great love and blessings of God be with you all the time.”

The Family Federation held two joint services, one in the Honam area at the Kim Dae-Jung Center in Gwangju, on the 2nd, and another in the Gangwon area at the Baekryung Art Center in Gangwondae, Chuncheon, on the 9th. Following the joint service for the capital area on this day, there is to be a Youngnam area service at Bexco, Busan, on the 23rd, and a Chungnam area service at the Sun Moon University gymnasium in Asan, on the 6th of November.

In addition, just as the name “joint service for sharing love” represents, the Family Federation plans on proceeding with neighborly activities such as delivering rice, hosting a bazaar and other volunteer service activities.....
