Life Politics Academy held a top leaders meeting at the Jung-gu Press Center in Seoul on May 29. Life Politics Academy is known for having sought for the development of democracy and for the realization of popular sovereignty through local government and decentralization.

At this occasion, over 70 assembly members spanning the city (-si), province (-do), district (-gun), and borough (-gu) administrative divisions across 17 metropolitan cities and provinces throughout the country were in attendance. Notably, Life Politics Academy Head Director Kyeong-Seuk Lu, Gyeonggi-do provincial assembly member Jae-Gu Ryu and Daejeon city councilman In-Ho Hwang were in attendance. At this meeting, chairmen for cities and provinces, as well as Central Steering Committee members were appointed, and Head Director Kyeong-Seuk Lu was appointed as co-director for the Life Politics Academy Small-Scale Forum National Federation.

Henceforward, Life Politics Academy will be performing the role as a think tank, with the Small-Scale Forum National Federation will become an action tank. Together, they plan on developing a wide range of programs for the realization of popular sovereignty and national autonomy.

During his welcoming remarks, Head Director Kyeong-Seuk Lu emphasized, "Popular sovereignty must take root for the realization of a free nation with peace and welfare as the fundamental principles of the constitution. National autonomy must be achieved through local governance and decentralization." Head Director Lu the revealed, "Rev. Sun Myung Moon and Hak Ja Han Moon, the founders of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification, have their philosophies rooted in 'Love Heaven · Love Humankind ·

Love Your Country,' and through Life Politics Academy Small-Scale Forum, we have advocated for the expansion of 'Life Politics' and 'Citizens' Politics.' Life Politics Academy and Small-Scale Forum will devote efforts for the patronage of regional politicians who are actively working for the happiness of local residents."...
