

Colorado Family Church: Final Details on Special Grace Ceremony This Saturday

Michael and Adonia Hentrich
April 3, 2023

Dear family,

The Special Grace Ceremony is coming up this Saturday at noon. The ceremony itself is not very long, maybe around 15 minutes. We will be participating live with all other communities in Subregion 5.

Afterwards, there will be some light refreshments, because we have families coming from pretty far away for this. Please come on time or early, as we don't have control of the actual schedule and the ceremony itself is quite short.

I wanted to share a few updates and answers to commonly asked questions.

Statement of Resolve

First of all, here is a link to the Statement of Resolve. If you already wrote this out on a regular piece of paper, that is ok. Please bring this with you to offer it up at the ceremony.

Registration

Everyone attending the ceremony is asked to register beforehand.

Condition

If you started the 40 day condition late, please finish the condition 40 days from whenever you began. It is ok if you started late.

Donation

All of the donations (multiple of 13) for the Special Grace Ceremony will be sent to HQ, so it is preferable to make the donation directly to them at this link. That being said, any way you choose to make your donation is fine.

Can't attend on this date?

The officiator of the ceremony is the Subregional Leader, so it is difficult for us to coordinate multiple ceremonies locally. In special case by case situations where you can not attend our local ceremony this Saturday, you are able to participate with another community's ceremony with permission from Rev. Thompson. Here is a link to ceremonies happening in other communities in the coming weeks. We can help facilitate connecting with a remote ceremony in these limited cases.

Preferred Dress

Men: dark suit; women: white (or off-white) dress or suit

Please also remember that the final step of the Special Grace Ceremony is to watch the Cosmic Blessing Ceremony in May and listen to Mother's benediction prayer.

Please let us know if you have any questions, and we will try to respond as quickly as possible. For reference, some of the original information on the Grace Ceremony is available below.
