

Colorado Family Church: Tomorrow's Service - Camp Journey is over and our youth and staff returned

Michael and Adonia Hentrich
July 15, 2023

Dear family,

We look forward to seeing you tomorrow for service. Pastor Adonia will be sharing the message, continuing from last week's message on Seeking God's Perspective.

This week is also the monthly Kodan fundraiser with Bento boxes and other Japanese goodies.

Below, you will find the recording from last Sunday's message. Pastor Mike shares about the need and the power behind seeking for God's perspective. Naturally, we see situations, people, ourselves from our own perspective, but this is NOT the same as what God sees and we need to tap into that in order to know how we should live our lives. If you wish to see our recordings as soon as they are posted online, please follow our YouTube channel or Facebook page.

See you soon!

Sincerely,
Pastors Mike & Adonia

Announcements

Camp Journey is officially over and all of our youth and workshop staff returned home Thursday night thoroughly exhausted. A huge thank you to everyone that helped support Camp Journey to be a great success this year. The kids experiences speak for themselves, and we've heard lots of good things. Here are some photos to enjoy!

On the home front, we've been hard at work renovating the new parsonage. The hardwood floors have been refinished and they look great! Dr. Hentrich has been hard at work patching and painting, David Mahardy has been making plumbing improvements, and Sergii has been framing a new wall for the basement bathroom!
