

Cranes Club Europe: Change for Cranes Club Talk, August 29th

Youngil Ely Loew
August 28, 2020

Hello everyone!

We got a bit of a change, our former guest, Lynnda Victoria Houston, is no longer available anymore...

But we still wanted to present you the call, and for that, we have the privilege to have with us, Ceri Jones that accepted to share tomorrow, despite the last minute request!

Don't miss out!

Join us by zoom, tomorrow Saturday 29th at 4 pm
CET/3 pm BST!
(the link will be send tomorrow)

Ceri Jones is a Financial Adviser, she is working towards taking over the family business established by her father.

She has a degree in International Business, Finance & Economics from the University of Manchester. Her work mainly consists of advising individuals & businesses on life insurance, pensions & investments.

She is passionate about the Cranes Club as a means of connecting people of similar or complementary aspirations in order to share the wealth of talent, skills & ideas within our community to build inspiring & successful ventures.

Find your path

by

Sonja Read

Previous Talk : episode 1

