Memorial Service
Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon
Founder of Universal Peace Federation
September 30th, 2012, 1:00 pm Reception
2:00 pm - 4:00 pm Memorial Service
Royal National Hotel, Bedford Way, WC1H 0DG near Russell Square

Dear Friends,

We have been so moved by the emails and the phone calls we have received over the last ten days since the passing of Rev Dr. Sun Myung Moon, the Founder of the Universal Peace Federation. Those have been of great comfort to Mrs. Moon, her children and the wider family as well as Margaret and myself at the UPF office in London. A number of us will attend the Ascension ceremony in Korea on the 15th of September. That will be a large public event and will be reported in the media. Some details and reports will continue to be reported on the website www.uk.upf.org, Facebook, @ukUPF (twitter) etc. over this period.

In the UK we are planning to have a public event on the 30th of September from 1:00 pm in the Royal National Hotel, Bedford, WC1H 0DG just off Russell Square and near to Euston Station. There are many friends who have attended one of Father Moon's speeches in the UK or overseas who have expressed a desire to attend a Memorial Service. I hope that this will be a good occasion to come together and remember those times or to understand something more about the inspiration for the Universal Peace Federation.

We will have a reception from 1:00 pm to meet and share with you all once again. >From 2:00 there will be a public meeting and remembrance of his life with testimonies of some people's experiences from the last 30-40 years of our experience of his ministry. If you want to understand something more of his life and faith there is an online copy of his biography on this link 'A Peace Loving Global Citizen'.

Thank you for your support. We hope to see you on the 30th when we can all express more. RSVP

Yours sincerely,

Robin Marsh and Margaret Ali
