

Divine Principle Workshop

Bucharest, Romania, 22. – 23. September 2012

Yong Cheon Song

On 22-23 September, 2012, at the end of 36th JSC for JeonDo, Romania CARP held 1 Day and 2 Days Divine Principle Workshop at the Peace Embassy. The guests were invited to find out more about Universal Principle, so those who came for 1 Day DP WS receive lectures about Principle of Creation and Human Fall, while those who came for 2 Days DP WS entered deeper in the content of Divine

Principle by attending to the lectures about Eschatology and Human History, The purpose of Messiah, Principle of Restoration, Parallels of History and preparation for Second Advent and about The Second Coming of the Messiah. At the end of the WS the guests could see more about our practical activities necessary to substantiate Principle in our lives through Shimjung Education System.

The WS included other activities like: Hwa Dong Hae, Sharing, Hoon Dok Hae. These were helpful to create joyful atmosphere and deeper relationship with each other. At the end we felt like in one family.

The participants were inspired and they showed interest to study more. We were grateful to be able to share such incredible truth and we put efforts to create harmonious environment so that everybody can feel the heart behind the words.

We hope to see them joining in SES and really grow as leaders.

Thank you very much!

Reflections of the guests for 2 Days DP WS

Ion Alexandru, 21 years old : „ In these two days I felt good, near to friends. Even we don t know each other from long time, I had the feeling that I know you for a life time. I learned that to become a leader I have to work first and to evaluate. I don t know what is my objective in life, to make a plan but now I know the way and this is great step.”

Nedelcu Stefania, 22 years old : „I like very much because people from here have desire to become better and work for this continuously. This make me think that the world become a better place. I want to live my live based on peace, love, and understanding and now I have also one example to follow.”

Radu Florin, 23 years old:„ I like to see that exists young people who can receive God and love him, and more than this, they involve in His Work. In conclusion I want to say that I m impressed and I hope to continue until the end in this way.”
