

Unification Theological Seminary Spring Student Convocation at 4 W 43 St.

Hugh Spurgin
March 25, 2019

We invite you to join us in worship and celebration at the Unification Theological Seminary's Spring Benefit and Theological Convocation

The Spring Convocation will take place in the Oak Room at 4W43 on Wednesday, March 27 at 5:00 pm.

Please attend with your and friends and family; support the new UTS students; and then stay to enjoy the delicious food after the event.

RSVP Joy Theriot j.theriot@uts.edu 917-485-3093

Even if you cannot attend, you can help seminarians receive the education and formation they need as they study to become your next pastor, missionary, scholar, teacher, or humanitarian.

Unification Theological Seminary Student Code

I commit myself before God:

1. To develop my relationship with God through regular spiritual practices with full devotion of heart, mind and body;
2. To uphold and live according to the highest moral and ethical standards in my personal life and relations with others;
3. To respect the campus as a smoke-free, alcohol-free and drug-free environment, and to maintain my body at all times as a temple of God;
4. To refrain from premarital and extramarital relationships, sexual harassment and pornography;
5. To respect the diversity of cultural and religious traditions;
6. To attend enrolled classes and fulfill academic responsibilities with honesty and integrity;
7. To pursue my religious vocation with integrity upon graduation.

I recognize that admission to UTS is a privilege, and hereby make my sincere commitment in heart and action to the provisions of this code, and to all standards of the Seminary as described in the Student Handbook.
