

Youth for Service India: Volunteers Assembly

Krishna Adhikari
November 22, 2015

YFWP/UPF India: On November 22, 2015 a special program: Youth for Service Volunteers Assembly with the theme “Empowering Youths: Vision, Values & Culture of Services” held in Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi in collaboration with NSS, Jamia Millia Islamia. (NSS: National Service Scheme: A College and School based youth project of Sports and Youth Ministry, Government of India)

We had around 300 youth students participants from Jamia Millia Islamia and University of Delhi participated in spite of their tight schedule for the preparation of upcoming exam.

Following Speakers delivered the speeches to educate the students:

- Welcome Remarks by Prof. N. U. Khan, Head, Department of Social Work, Jamia Millia Islamia
- Keynote Address by Dr. Chung Sik Yong, Chairman, UPF-Asia
- Chief Guest’s Address by Hon. B. P. Singh, Former Governor of Sikkim and Chairman of UPF India
- Special Presentation by Dr. Robert S. Kittel, Director, Peace Education, UPF-Asia
- Introduction of Youth for Service Initiative by Mr. Krishna Adhikari

In the program volunteers shared their testimonies and also took part in various cultural performances.

