At Trader Joe's he gave his best to make both colleagues and patrons happy.

Two years ago, Thomas was diagnosed with irreversible COPD (Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease). Since January he had been in and out of the emergency room fighting for his life he as hard as he could. His condition took a turn for the worst on May 13, 2020. Nine days later on May 22, 2020, he peacefully ascended surrounded by his wife Lorna, his daughter Dana and Mikko, their precious dog.

Thomas will be laid to rest in Santa Monica, California on September 16, 2020 which would have been his 65th birthday.
