Dear Friend,

China's economy is declining as a result of the unscientific Zero Covid mass campaign launched by Chinese supreme leader Xi Jinping. Tensions with the United States are increasing and the Chinese Communist Party is growing more isolated as regional states seek closer alignment with America.

In a bid to counteract his failures, Xi recently launched a new ideological mass campaign throughout China that mirrors a similar effort by Mao Zedong several decades ago to divert attention from his ruinous policies.

My latest VOC podcast provides an important explanation for what is happening in the ideological realm in China under what Xi calls Marxism-Leninism with Chinese characteristics for a new era. This is an important podcast providing valuable information only available in few places on the advance of Chinese communism and the urgent need to counter it.

The counterproposal section continues my clear exposition of what is needed to defeat communism ideologically -- a Judeo-Christian worldview that aligns with the views of America's Founding Fathers who established the United States on God-centered principles and values they saw as integral to the success of the new nation.

For the news section, I discuss how China's communist rulers continue to try and hide the crimes of June 1989 when People's Liberation Army troops and tanks massacred thousands of unarmed pro-democracy protesters camped out in Beijing's main Tiananmen Square, demanding freedom and democracy.

And my interview for this episode is must listening. I spoke with Matt Pottinger, former White House deputy national security adviser, who explains how the Chinese Communist Party is driven by a deep-seated desire to stay in power at all costs.
