He speaks fluent Polish, English, Russian and some Spanish. Born in 1951 and raised in Poland, Rev. Hempowicz immigrated to the United States in 1977. Two years later, he joined the Unification Church, and has served as a full-time volunteer and pastor for the past 38 years. In 1982 he was introduced and Blessed to his wife, Christine, by True Parents in Madison Square Garden, New York City. They have four children, ages 28 to 19, and reside in Bridgeport, Connecticut.

Rev. Hempowicz pastored the Family Church of Connecticut and served as the state director from 1998 to early 2015. Jeffrey (Jeff) Schmidt

Jeff joined the IOWC in 1979 and spent a few months traveling with that team until True father called everyone to join MFT. He spent seven years as a member and captain in MFT. He then spent a few years learning the fish business, and worked as a Japanese restaurant manager while being involved in the church community where he joined.

True Father then asked everyone to return to their hometowns, so in 1991 Jeff and his wife Toyoko with their three children at the time moved to his hometown in Wisconsin. There he opened his own business of art and framing with the skills learnt by operating an art gallery on MFT. He kept volunteering on a local, district and national level when feeling God's calling, culminating in closing the business when he felt called to assist the U.S. headquarters in the Middle East Peace Initiative international programs.

Another business opportunity came along when that mission completed. Jeff also served as assistant state leader for seven years as well as having served on the local, district and national councils.

All four of Jeff and Toyoko's children are blessed by True Parents.

Pastor Drissa Kone was born and raised in a small village in the Northern side of Ivory Coast in West Africa. When civil war broke out in 2002, a military coup divided the Ivory Coast into two parts, the North with a Muslim majority and the South with a Christian majority. On the third night, Pastor Kone had a spiritual experience with Jesus, who said to him "Follow me and you'll be saved."

The next day, he was allowed to leave the camp, it was a miracle. On the same day, he met a young woman who invited him to a Unification Church center to study the Divine Principle. In studying the Divine Principle, he found the answer to the meaning of life and joined the Unification Movement in March 2003.
