Dear

Mark your calendar and join us on Tuesday, November 21 for a meeting on the crisis in Gaza. This HPF meeting will be co-hosted with the HJ International Graduate School of Peace and Public Leadership (HJI).

Our three person panel will present principled perspectives on the recent tragic events in Southern Israel and the Gaza Strip. They will offer insights into possible avenues forward, bringing an end to the conflict, sowing the seeds of permanent peace and a hopeful future with respect for the human rights of all.

Following our participant discussion period, concluding remarks will be offered by Dr. Thomas Walsh, President HJ International Graduate School

Panelists

Dr. Drissa Kone

Dr. Kone was raised in Côte d'Ivoire, earning a degree at Cocody Univ. Surviving civil war, prison, and torture he came to the U.S. in 2008. Dr. Kone earned an MDiv and DMin at UTS, focusing on transformational leadership and management of cross-cultural conflict. He also earned an MA in diplomacy from Norwich University.

Dr. Kone was the chaplain at Barrytown College and pastor of the Belvedere Family Church. He is an Associate Professor of Conflict Resolution and Ministry at HJI.
