A Personal Reflection

It is amazing to see what True Mother has been doing. In a nutshell, she has been crossing all the T's and dotting all the I's pertaining to the mission of the True Parents.

True Parents' mission is to establish the foundation for the establishment of God's Kingdom on earth. It is about planting the seed of the Kingdom. And what True Mother has been doing up to this point, and what she wants to achieve while she is still physically alive, is to deepen, expand, and secure the foundation established by the True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind. The fact that she has been able to achieve what she has achieved in the seven years since True Father's ascension is nothing but phenomenal. It is phenomenal because she did not have a smooth road. She achieved it in the midst of all types of oppositions within and without the Unification family. She could easily have given up and sit back to care of her knee, which has been bothering her for quite some time now. Do we know how hard Satan has been working to foil True Parents' agenda? In retrospect, do we have any idea how catastrophic the impact of COVID-19 would have been if True Mother sat comfortably in the Cheon Jeong Gung during the whole year or the end of 2019?

Some of us started to feel sorry for True Mother that she continued to push herself even to what looked like a point of collapse. I remember seeing True Mother being accompanied to the stage during the festivities on February 7, 2020. I was sitting down while watching the live feed, but I felt like my knees were going to give up on me when True Mother was entering the stage. I felt like I was carrying a lot of weight and dealing with unspeakable amount of attacks. It was visible, at least to me, that True Mother was going through excruciating pain. Was it all just physical pain? I believe that True Mother would have preferred not to be there on that day, if it only was about her. Unfortunately for her, this was more than just being about her. She knew what she was doing, why, for what, and for whom.

To me, this is also at the core of why True Mother is putting her own life on the line. More than that, True Mother saw how hard True Father worked and how much sacrifice True Father made during his lifetime.

There are people who are against some if not most of the changes that True Mother has been making. They would like to see True Mother keep things as True Father left them. That's understandable. However, that is not progress. Keeping things the way True Father left them will eventually make things stagnant. And this will eventually allow Satan to catch up and take over. What True Mother is doing is substantiating what True Father started and completing what she and True Father have worked on together.

There are people who say that True Mother has no right to change when we celebrate True God's Day (Heavenly Parent's Day). Yet, we forget that several times, when he was alive, True Father said that True God's Day was supposed to be celebrated at the same time as True Parents' Blessing. I bet some of us have forgotten that already. Right? We have also, conveniently, forgotten that True Father did not come to start a church.

The name Heavenly Parent's Holy Community is the most recent example of True Mother completing what she and True Father have been working on. So far, all of the organizations that we have had in our movement have been places for individuals to connect to the True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind. However, the Heavenly Parent's Holy Community is a place where not only individuals, but organizations and denominations will have the chance to connect to the True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind. For instance, a Christian minister does not have to leave her church to connect to the True Parents. There is the American Clergy Leadership Conference (ACLCL) or the World Clergy Leadership Conference (WCLC) for that. However, even though a Christian minister can connect to the True Parents through ACLCL or WCLC, his/her congregation, as a whole, does not really have a connection to the True Parents. With the advent of the Heavenly Parent's Holy Community, a Baptist church around the corner can connect to the True Parents through the Heavenly Parent's Holy Community while still maintaining its identity of a Baptist church. Isn't that amazing? With the new structure, a research organization can become part of the Heavenly Parent's Holy Community even if not all of its employees believe in the True Parents. Same holds true for charitable organizations, or any institution that strives to making God's Kingdom a reality. This could not happen under the umbrella of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (FFWPU).

This is what the True Parents have come to do: engraft every individual, family, tribe, people, nation, denomination, and organization, to God's ideal through the True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind.

Aju!

Welcome to Cheon Il Guk, the Holy Community of Our Heavenly Parent!
