In early July (July 5 - 7, 2019), Jalsa Salana 2019 (the formal, annual gathering of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community) was held in Karlsruhe, Germany. Myrabelle Corlett and Althea Palombi Corlett from WFWP Malta, joined by Bryan Corlett (Universal Peace Federation [UPF] Malta) and Ambassador for Peace, former Jesuit priest Piere Giorgio Buttigieg, were invited as special guests by Imam Ahmed Latif, representative of Ahmadiyya Muslim Jamaat, Malta.

The convention was well organised with an attendance of close to 45,000 people from all over the world. His Holiness, Masroor Ahmed Khalifatul Masir V was present and gave spiritual guidance during most sessions.

We were very cordially hosted and were free to attend the entire convention, kindly escorted by Imam Ahmed Latif's wife and young son.

At the end of the convention, we were kindly invited to an exclusive meeting with His Holiness Khalif Masir V where we could express our impression of the convention, and speak about our organisations (WFWP and UPF) and Founders Rev. and Mrs. Moon. The Khalif later honoured our meeting by inviting us to take a photo with him.

This truly was a memorable event where the Peace motto 'Love for All, Hate for None' was tangibly expressed.
