The Victorious Life of Curtis Fladung October 9, 1963 - June 18, 2015

Curtis Fladung was born in Denver, Colorado on October 9, 1963. He joined the Unification Church in 1983. He received the Marriage Blessing with Rita on January 12, 1989 in Korea as part of the 1,275 Couples' Blessing. Together they lived in Korea as missionaries for two years promoting the unification of North and South Korea. He has four children, Cory age 21, Jessica and Nicole age 18, and Kailey age 10.

Life was never easy for him; regardless, he always had such a strong faith. Curtis was a writer and a dreamer. From a young age he dealt with his struggles through his creativity in writing and drawing. He has a passion for comic books, super heroes, and reading. His favorite thing to do was play video games with his daughters. He was difficult to understand at times, but so are many great artists of the world. Even though he was often misunderstood, we will always remember his youthful spirit.
