

WFWP Italy's Elisabetta Nistri at Conference on The Role of Women in the World

Elisabetta Nistri
September 17, 2020

Elisabetta Nistri, President WFWP Italy was invited by Dr. Maria Pia Turiello, Criminologist and Psychotherapist to join in on the research of the topic, "The Role of Women in the World," along with Embassies and other Women Associations leaders.

The conference was held in the University for Peace in Rome with 40 people representing several Embassies - including the representative of the Minister of Education and the Rector of the University.

Elisabetta Nistri in her message expressed deep appreciation for the commitment of the research and explained the work WFWP is doing to help women to rediscover their value and the contribution they can give to solve world issues working side by side with men.

The Rector of University of Peace was inspired and offered his contribution to write an article for the VOICE OF PEACE (UPF and WFWP magazine).

Reported by Elisabetta Nistri
WFWP Italy President