

Aftereffects of the “First Blessing” seminars

Milan, November 2014

In the last year I've conducted twenty “First Blessing” seminars in cities across the United States, in Canada, and in Italy. The purpose of these seminars is to help people, as the Divine Principle puts it, “...acquire the ability to communicate with God.” In the aftermath of attending these seminars, I've received numerous reports from participants who are doing just that, and some of the most moving I possess are the ones from Salvatore Ingresso, who lives in Zurich, Switzerland. He attended the seminar in Milan, Italy in November. He told me, “...what you were saying was what I was also hearing inside my heart in 2014,” and it resulted in him receiving a deep communication from God on January 1. He has graciously given the Cornerstone permission to publish his experience, which is offered for the edification and uplifting of all who read it:

Testimony of Salvatore Ingresso, January 1, 2015

In the last few days, at the end of the year 2014, I had many internal conflicts about my mission. This is why this morning I invited Heavenly Father to come to me, wanting to discuss with him what I should do in this new year 2015.

He came to me in an atmosphere of peace. I was just enjoying his love. And he started to speak to me:

“You have many problems. You are going to brothers and sisters seeking for advice and solutions. But who made you? Who knows your problems better than I do? Why don't you come directly to me? I don't only know the answer but also the remedy.

“I know you are very busy during the day, but try to find at least half an hour, make a little space in a corner of your heart, ask me to come (I cannot come if you don't want), put away all your worries and tell me sincerely about your situation. Can you trust me? But please after that don't go away, wait for my answer. Send away all your thoughts and make room in your mind for what I want to tell you. Be also ready to hear things that are unusual for some other people. It is not necessary to tell others about our talk, follow your intuition. It can remain a secret between us. I like to have some secrets with my beloved children.

“I see you are very busy looking for guidance in the Holy Scriptures. This is good. But you are forgetting that I was giving those words to the prophets and great teachers of the past. I taught them all the wise words that they passed on. But many followers of the World Religions believe more in their Religious Teachers than in me. Sometimes they even worship them.

“Actually I was longing to speak directly with you and on the foundation that True Parents made, this time has come. I called you to learn the DP, to teach them, but also to live them in your daily life. Not just to make a library of the past and present Holy Scriptures and to forget about their purpose. I was very happy when you were teaching about the Growth Period. This is essential for me. Many years ago you met True Parents, you received the Blessing at the top of the Growth Stage where Adam and Eve fell, and walked together with True Parents for more than 30 years in the Completion Stage. The TP fulfilled their mission and my son Sun Myung Moon, came to meet me in the Spiritual World. Now I'm waiting patiently for you to find the courage to enter the Perfection Stage. This means you'll be in my direct dominion. Very few people had such courage until now. I hope you can do it as soon as possible. I'm waiting for you. Or are you maybe waiting for somebody to tell you when you are perfect and to give you permission to come to me? Don't worry if you have some problems, I have more problems than you. Please don't wait anymore. We can grow together and build my kingdom together, or even better our kingdom, because we are one family.

“Please don't wait anymore. I lived long enough almost alone, with just a few people. Now is the time to realize the Cheon Il Guk. Don't forget, our kingdom begins in our hearts, and nobody can destroy it, except if you are making the mistake to leave me.”
