The Women's Federation for World Peace is running a third art contest for children throughout the United Kingdom entitled 'My Dream' commemorating the International Day of Women, which took place on 8th March; entries are open until 31st August 2023.

According to the organisers, the aim is to honour and recognize the importance of children's art in our national society, to promote the use of art as a medium for self-expression and self-healing and to encourage children to explore what they dream about through using their creativity.

With three age categories ranging from 5 to 16 years, any art medium except digital is acceptable and there will be three prizes per age group:

£100 for 1st prize

£70 for 2nd prize

£40 for 3rd prize

On 23rd September, the online award ceremony will take place where the results will be announced, and the awards presented.

The

Our International Women's Day evening in Birmingham was attended by about 90 women from a wide variety of backgrounds, with the theme of 'Women Making A Difference' in our world. More than 20 ladies were joining us for the first time. We were very happy to have Mrs Mitty Tohma with us, the current President of WFWP for Europe and the Middle East.
