

FFWPU Day of Happy Families Festival in Bashkortostan, Ural, Russia

Andrey Burashov
May 14, 2021

The festival "Day of Happy Families" was held in the village of Verkhneyarkeyevo (Bashkortostan, Russia). The festival was organized by the efforts of the Ilishevsky district Family Service and the Pavlov family of Alexey and Ilsiyyar, representatives of the FFWPU in the Ilishevsky district. Six couples participated in the three steps of marriage renewal ceremonies. Among the invited speakers was the head of the registry office of the Ilishevsky district Khabirova Aigul Ulfatovna and the imam of the khatib mosque of Yunna Ibrahim Hazrat, who congratulated everyone on International Family Day and gave parting words to families. The head of the family service in the Ilishevsky district Tatyana Vladimirovna made a welcoming speech.

Vladislav Shaidullin made a presentation on the importance of family and marriage from the FFWPU. The event was held on a high level, concert performances were organized by the participants of the festival, Two older families were awarded diplomas "Model family". There were also contests, and all the couples took an active part.

Thanks to everyone who helped organize the holiday, financially and with prayers.