Here, Mary became one with Jesus and had to fulfill her mission to save Jesus' partner, no matter what the sacrifice. However, she lost everything because she failed to fulfill her mission. Because everyone in the family, including Joseph, was lost, Jesus had to leave the house and search for his partner. Then, the problem is who to put in the same position as Joseph, since this must be done out of the house. Judas Iscariot was the right person for this. Then where should we find someone who can put us in Mary's position? Because Mary and Joseph failed at home, we need to find this again. If this is not restored, Jesus cannot continue his mission, so in order to do this externally, Jesus left home. So, he sought out 12 disciples and tried to do this with Judas Iscariot at the center. Nevertheless, his will was not fulfilled. So what is the motive? This is why Judas Iscariot sold Jesus for 30 pieces of money. Did Judas Iscariot betray Jesus for money? Judas Iscariot had to cooperate with his beloved wife so that she could be faithful to Jesus day and night. Even if it meant separating from her wife, she had to provide a foundation for her to stand in the same position as Jesus' mother and cooperate with Jesus. Nevertheless, he failed to fulfill that responsibility. Because all these foundations were destroyed, Jesus had nowhere to go and had no choice but to die on the cross. In this way, because Jesus died carrying the history of misfortune, our Unification Church today must resolve this history. At that time, Mary Magdalene was a lover of Judas Iscariot at the same time as a follower of Jesus' will. Yes, Jesus took the woman of Judah as the foundation of Eve, just as Satan had taken Eve away, and fulfilled her original purpose and carried out her will. Therefore, she gave Mary Magdalene to Judas Iscariot to take care of her body. Yes, Jesus, as one person with this year, attacked the Judas woman and initiated her transformation. Jesus has left the world. Because he was out here trying to save a child. Have you ever thought about who would replace Joseph out there? The reason why Judas Iscariot betrayed his teacher was because of love. This makes the reason clear: she (she and Jesus) wanted to do this by sharing secret stories and being together more than anyone else. But you can't teach. Did he corrupt by teaching, or did he lead astray? The woman was drawn to Jesus by heavenly love. Such a battle has been fought behind the scenes of providence. In the end, Jesus failed because of whom. It was for Joseph and Judas Iscariot.
