

First One Hundred-Day Workshop in Japan

FFWPU History Compilation Committee

July 5, 1973

The first one-hundred-day workshop in Japan began on July 5, 1973, at the Atsugi Training Center in the city of Atsugi.

Members had responded to True Father's words: "For people to become global leaders, there are three abilities they must have. Based on correct values, these are persuasion, public relations, diplomacy and business skills."

Eighteen one hundred-day workshops were held, with Japan's top executives participating. After that, it was replaced by a forty-day workshop. (Materials provided by the FFWPU History Compilation Committee)
