The purpose for human sex includes having children (like animals), but in addition, we have sex even when it is not possible to conceive children.

The Nature of Sex

Sex is pleasurable. It is the most powerful natural pleasure we experience. Why?

Ironically, the joy of sex is not primarily for our personal pleasure. It is to make marriage unbreakable.

The Power of Sex

If something were more powerful or pleasurable than sex, then the union between husband and wife could be easily broken.

Sex is the most pleasurable experience because the union of husband and wife should never be broken.
