Dear Friends in Faiths,

I was very inspired by every ACLC pastor's power point presentations at the ACLC Conference held in Houston from March 22nd to the 24th. Like most of the participants, I was saying Halleluiah as well to all of the inspiration in their valuable scriptural messages.

Because of your success, ACLC leaders have suggested having an ACLC seminar every two months between rotating cities across America. We are also planning to have a Hispanic clergy seminar in New Jersey from May 10th to the 12th. Additionally, I appreciate all those who gave us support by delivering the peace message on six continents and those who are participating in the Middle East Peace Initiative conference in Israel at this time.

I really believe that the ACLC movement is a great spiritual awakening that is moving the hearts of clergy in the community, the nation and the world. Thank you again for your continued support.

God bless you,

Bishop Ki Hoon Kim
ALC Vice Chairman

Thank you for your outstanding care and love for the ACLC organization. If my staff or I can be of any further assistance to you and your church or organization, do not hesitate to call our office at 202-319-3200 ext. 143 or 138.

Let's take this energy and God's spirit back to our states and continue to work through our Prayer Breakfasts to be able to sponsor more ACLC members into our family.

God bless you,

Levy MB Daugherty
ACLC Secretary General

TESTIMONY “Two Become One Flesh”

Rev. Dr. Andre Jackson and Pastor Carla Jackson

We came to an understanding that when two or three come together and agree does not mean to me that you and the pastor are always correct.

God was saying that when a husband, wife and one child come together they can subdue the nation because God will be in the mist.

When God said that they became one flesh that was the birth of a child, because the child is apart of the husband and the wife combined as one.

Religion separates us from building the body of Christ. To build the church we as ACLC members need to visit the church more, seed the church and help that church grow.

Rev. Dr. Andre Jackson

Rev. Willie L. Weston, Sr. presented Session 8: Why Do We Need a Messiah? Jesus and God’s Will at the ACLC Houston Conference. (3-23-07).

Rev. Dr. Michael W. Jenkins presented Session 9: Parallels of History I & II at the ACLC Houston Conference. (3-23-07)

Rev. Marilyn Rawls is presenting Session 5 on the ACLC Conference: The Reason the Kingdom of Heaven’s Culture is Not on the Earth. (3-23-07)

Women in Ministry

"So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them." Genesis 1:27

Greetings to all of my Sisters and Brothers that came to Houston to the National ACLC Conference that was held on March 22nd and ended with a Prayer Breakfast on Saturday, the 24th. About 100 clergy came from all over the nation and it was very inspirational.

The high point was the presentation by Sis Rawls from Selma, Alabama. Sis Rawls did not leave one dry eye in the conference as she conveyed Eve's side of the Fall. My heartfelt thanks to her for a job well done.

I want to thank each conference attendee for your spirit filled presence at the Prayer breakfast that was held at Gloryland Baptist Church. It truly was a breakfast revival. I am always inspired by Rev Jenkins, Rev Daugherty, and Archbishop Stallings.

Special thanks to Bishop Kim, who has inspired the Women in Ministry to take that extra step and to stretch themselves for the great cause of Christ. To all my Sisters and Brothers, let us continue praying for the peace of Jerusalem.

Your Humble Servant,

Rev Ethel Hayes

REPORT from ACLC LOS ANGELES

9 New ACLC members were introduced at the ACLC Prayer Breakfast program. (3-31-07)

Rev. Carlos Torres

In preparation for Holy Week, members and guests of the ACLC Los Angeles gathered on Saturday, March 31, at Sadoc Christian Peace Family Church in Compton to hold the monthly ministers' prayer breakfast. St. John's Lutheran Church Pastoral Assistant Rev. Carlos Torres served as MC with a passion and enthusiasm that reflected the excitement generated at the national ACLC Houston conference, March 22-24, 2007.

Minister Michelene Millsap gave clear and spirit-filled talk about the ACLC goals and objectives. She asked the participants to join her in reciting the ACLC motto: "Restore the Family, Rebuild the Community, Renew the Nation and the World!" In addition, the new easy membership payment system was explained; the simplicity of the new system is really helping to spearhead new memberships.

Keynote speaker Bishop John Morris gave his talk on "Restoring the Family to Build God's Kingdom." Bishop Morris proceeded to share several practical points that we Christians need to be aware of in both our relationships with God as individuals, and in our intimate relationships as husband and wife. He really challenged us to bring God's Blessing to our homes.

Overall, this meeting can only be described, in the words of one participant, as "high spirited and the best yet!" Such a high spirit can only be attributed to the fact that host church pastor Rev. Dr. Millsap and his congregation and family supported not only this breakfast meeting, but continually support the work of the ACLC ministry.

My Testimony about ACLC and UTS

Reverend Leander W. Hardaway, JD

I was informed, at an ACLC national event, that UTS was providing ecumenical scholarships for qualified ministers; who desired advanced theological training.

Rev. L.W. Hardaway

I visited the UTS Extension Center in New York city and was immediately excited by the seminary's faculty and the school's 21st century approach to ministry in an urban environment. I felt at home with the accessible nature of the professors, which allowed for effective mentoring relationships between faculty and students. I've developed and sharpened an array of skills and aptitudes which clergypersons will need in order to effectively minister in a post-modern society.

“UTS is the seminary of TODAY, preparing clergy for the ministries of TOMORROW.”

I am thankful to the ACLC and UTS for providing me ulty and students.

During the past three years the education I have received from UTS has dramatically shaped my and other ministers with the resources to make quality seminary education attainable.
