

I dedicate this to all the children and to all those who live with the heart of a child.

Character Info

Songja-man

'God's child' in Korean is Songja.
So Songja-man literally means
'God's Child Man'.

Originally a child of God, like True Father, is a prince of heaven that governs the spirit world and the physical world.

To make that idea easier to grasp, we express that idea as Songja-man riding on Song-yong.

Song-yong (Holy Dragon)

Angels exist to guide and assist original God's children in the right direction. Songja-man can't fly between the spirit world
and the physical world,
so we made Song-yong his means of transportation,
but originally Song-yong
has a role of an angel.

The Dark Emperor Darakoon

The being that Lucifer became after he fell is Satan. For this story he is named 'Darakoon'.

Mini Demons

Evil spirits are beings who do evil deeds to humans. We express such beings as mini demons here.

That world was intended to become Heaven; a joyful place in which God's children and the creation would live for the sake of one another in happiness for all eternity.

In the beginning, God created all things in the spirit world and the physical world for His Kingdom.

God decided to send someone to planet earth who could help the children of the world realize that they were all His children, and give them the strength and courage to overcome unrighteousness.

However, because the dark emperor Darakoon and his minions were preventing the Kingdom to be made,
