

God's Hope for America Bus Tour - Day 2 – Unity

Michael Balcomb

June 23, 2014

The word “unity” describes Day 2 of the Holy Ground Pilgrimage Tour in the best way for me.

Having left incredibly beautiful Bay Area pastored by Rev Thompson, we took direction to the South and were welcomed by Pastor George Kazakos and LA community. It felt like going from one family house to another with just a change of scenery outside.

The morning devotions started with the songs “Unite into one” and finished with “Tongil (unity)”. Eating out together, grabbing coffee together, and just simply being in one bus for several hours moving in one direction created a strong family feeling.

After concluding our the walk on the Hollywood Boulevard, we were even more united in heart to speed onwards to our main destination for the day, the Los Angeles Holy Ground in Griffith Park.

The tour guides warned us that the climb up to the Holy Ground would be steep, but most of us chose the harder route anyway, with youngest climber being 1 year old and the oldest way in his 70s. It felt like one united team of pilgrims following our True Father.

Contributed by Olga