

Call for Prayers for the European Elections This Week – 7pm BST

Michael Balcomb
May 22, 2019

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Call for Prayers for the European Elections This Week

As you are all aware, in the next few days Europe will go to the polls to elect over 700 members of the European Parliament. For the rest of this week, I would like to invite everyone to offer a time of devotion that God could guide this process. If you are registered to vote, please do exercise that precious and hard-won right and privilege.

I am grateful to our Austrian brother, Martin Kiedler, who has formulated some prayer points for us to consider to set the course for the restoration of Europe, and he kindly reminded me of them this past weekend when we were in Vienna:

That MEPs will be elected who are guided by heaven, and willing support the concerns of Heavenly Parent and True Parents, and the providential organizations they established.

That God calls righteous MEPs who are willing to invite True Mother to speak and offer the Blessing to those in the highest positions of the institutions of the EU.

That God calls MEPs who will protect our Christian and wider religious European heritage against godless and humanistic ideas and practices, and work to prevent religious radicalization and extremism, especially among our youth.

That God guides all voters and all parties to transcend our own narrow interests and cooperate for the sake of Europe and the world.

I hope to see as many of you as possible on our prayer call this week at 2000 CET (1900 BST). You can join it at:

Zoom Prayer Call – 7pm

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Michael and Fumiko Balcomb'. The signature is written in a cursive style.

Michael and Fumiko Balcomb

Regional Group Chair, Europe and the Middle East