Thank You to Eddie Hartley

Members of the board of trustees and our Regional Directors, Mike and Fumiko Balcomb, enjoyed an appreciation dinner together with Eddie Hartley on 29th February to say thank you after he stood down as long-serving treasurer of 12 years. He was the board's chair for eight of those years, taking both responsibilities very seriously during a time of radical change in our Movement. During that time, he helped the transition from HSAUWC to FFWPU and kept a steady hand on the tiller during times when the pressure was on.

Thank you, Eddie, for your incredible investment in the UK providence!

The Power of Forgiveness - UPF/WFP Events in Birmingham

- by David Earle

On January 23rd, 45 people gathered in our home to consider the power of forgiveness, through historical examples, and also its relevance to our personal lives. We looked at the biblical model of the two brothers, Jacob and Esau, and then the life of Jesus. We quoted the example of Prophet Mohammed, forgiving the lady who gave abuse every day when he passed by her house, going to visit her when she became ill. Then on to contemporary examples - Mahatma Gandhi, Nelson Mandela, and the stories of Rev Moon travelling to Russia and North Korea at the risk of his life, to forgive those who had sought to destroy him. In the Middle East, members of the Parents Circle and Families Forum are working together, despite having paid the ultimate price of the loss of a loved one. And in Africa, documentary films of 'The Imam and the Pastor' in Nigeria, and 'Beyond Forgiving' in South Africa, where Ginn Fourie and Letlapa Mphalele somehow found the incredible courage to not only forgive one another, but then decided to work together for reconciliation and peace. So many heroic men and women.

Patricia read an extract from Desmond Tutu's 'Book of Forgiveness', followed by some time for everyone to share their personal views and stories, and then we concluded with an informal time of refreshments and sharing together.

BCLC: Divine Principle Seminar for Clergy

- by June Darby

23rd February:

This, the last in the current series of Divine Principle seminars for clergy was well-supported by brothers and sisters - it makes a great difference - and most ably led by Pastor Daniel Fenuga (seated front left) who did a great job. Pastor Ayani, next to him, gave a powerful testimony as the rightness of True Parents work and the power of the Principle.

18th February:

It was a damp, windy, dark night on 18th Feb 2020 when we held our Seminar introducing the Principles of Creation, but there was a bright, uplifting spirit inside.

Rev. Dr. David Hanna showed a short video of UPF activities that showed the impressive breadth and scope of the work done by the UPF in working to realise Rev. and Mrs Moon's vision for world peace through reaching out to the different areas of life, from Government Presidents, Faith Leaders, Academics, the Media, Women's and Youth Organisations.

Rev. Hanna gave an excellent lecture on the Principles of Creation and Rev. Isaac Ayani gave a very thought provoking introduction to the Origin of sin.

We had some distinguished guests, namely Rev. Rufus Thomas who is the Liaison Officer of Europe for the Christ Apostolic Church, equivalent to the Assistant Continental Director, as well as Rev. Ayani who was recently appointed as the Deputy Secretary of Europe for the CChurch. This Pentecostal Church is now 100 years old and has millions of followers worldwide.

We began with a stirring hymn accompanied by Rev. Hanna on the piano and ended with a powerful testimony and strong unison prayer led by Rev. Daniel Fenuga. I am always grateful to the sisters who support us.
