Welcome to Our New Bromley Pastor Couple

Sunday 1st March really felt like the first day of spring, with a beautiful sermon from our sister, Tanya Chandler. After lunch, we held a Bromley Community meeting and the conclusion was a resounding vote in favour of inviting Matthew and Natasha to become the new pastor couple for Bromley, which they happily accepted.

We have invited Dr Balcomb to our Holy Day Sunday Service on 22nd March, where he will inaugurate them as our new pastor couple. Many congratulations - Bromley has a new pastor after 18 months and our Committee will wholeheartedly work to support them.

- David Franklin (Committee chair)

Coronavirus

As a community, we must have a responsible attitude towards the spread of this virus. We will always follow the Government's latest guidelines:

- Washing or sanitising hands thoroughly when arriving at Livingstone House
- If you feel any flu-like symptoms, please do not come to Livingstone House but contact the NHS
- Livingstone House may have to close in the future when and if the Government advise against public meetings

Exhibition to Celebrate True Father's Centenary

We would like to put on a public exhibition somewhere in our local area (possibly an outdoor community event, public library) to celebrate True Father's centenary year.

We have some beautiful posters prepared already, and would like to create a small team to plan and run this project.

If you would like to be involved, please contact David Franklin: ffwpubromley@gmail.com.
