

Survey regarding the development of the new FFWPU-UK community website.

As we close the development of our FFWPU-UK public site (familyfed.co.uk), we wish to proceed forwards with the development of an equally important project: the new community site. We will use responses from this survey to guide us in the direction the community wants us to take when curating this site meant for use by our membership.

What should the domain name be?

Your answer

---

What features do you believe to be essential in creating a community site for our UK community? (for example, photo galleries, upcoming event/s calendar, original articles, etc.)

Your answer

---

What should the primary purpose of our new community website be? (for example: ...an online platform where members can keep-up-date on activities regarding the movement...)

Your answer

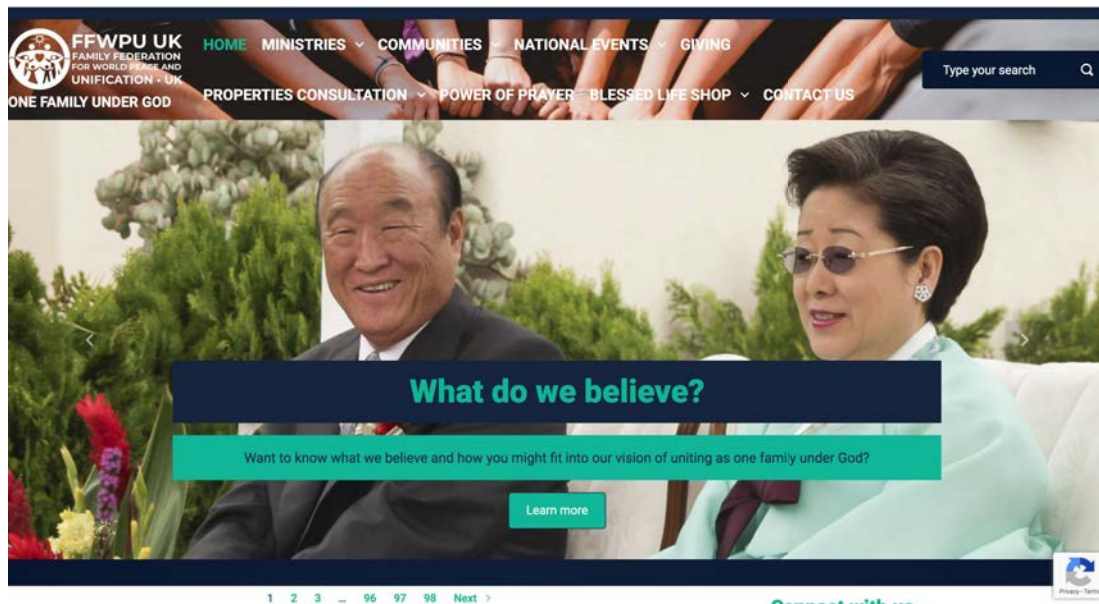

---

How would you seek to improve the current community site? (um-uk.org) [UK movement]

Your answer

---

The "old" community site that will be scrapped once the new site is developed.

How can this new community site be used to further engage our community, both nationally and internationally?

Your answer
