Donations to Support the Warren Family

Toby Warren, our beloved brother from the South London Community, passed away in the early hours of Monday 13th July.

A GoFundMe campaign has been set up to support the Warren family during this incredibly difficult time. The money raised will be used towards caring for two unwell members of the family, medical bills, and to go towards food and household bills while they are unable to work. It will also go towards funeral costs.

To The Breach! - A Reflection by Rosemarie Hoyte

"...something in my own heart was gradually changing. It felt as if I was seeing God for the first time and through fresh eyes. Some days I felt that my heart was ready to burst with joy and gratitude.

"Towards the end of the 40 days, I had an experience that each time I would close my eyes in prayer or meditation, I was met with a vision of Father. In every vision he wore Danbury Prison clothes."
