CheonBo Returns To Cleeve House - Register Now!

From the evening of the 22nd to the 23rd of June, we will be having a CheonBo event at Cleeve House after the Annual Gathering Festival.

Following the Annual Gathering Festival, we will be having a CheonBo event from the evening of Saturday the 22nd to Sunday the 23rd afternoon. Please register your interest here so we can better prepare and inspire our CheonBo team to join us and lead us in Chanyang.

Please note that the rooms at Cleeve House are fully booked so you will need to make alternative arrangements soon, as the Devizes Arts Festival will also be taking place that weekend. However, there will be spaces at Cleeve House for those who would like to camp.

A full schedule and registrations will be released soon. Please keep an eye out for the weekly newsletter and other news announcements.

The Annual Gathering Festival and the CheonBo event will have different registration forms. For more information on the Annual Gathering Festival, please visit here.

Nomination Form - Grace Miller Award 2024

Description

The Grace Miller Award celebrates an exceptional young member of the FFWPU community for their hard work and accomplishments in their community over the previous year.

- Nominees should be aged between 16-25
- Nominees should have demonstrated an exemplary life of faith
- Nominees should have made an impact in their local FFWPU community or in their neighbourhood (e.g. at school/university)

The Background:

At the age of 56, Grace Miller joined the Unification Movement and dedicated the rest of her years towards living a life with God and for the sake of others. She is remembered most for her motherly heart and her appreciation for 2nd Generation members.

In 2001, Grace's son – Tim Miller – created the 'Grace Miller Award' to give recognition to young Unificationists and Blessed Children and honour Grace's memory.

Do you know an exceptional young member deserving of this year's award? Nominate them using the form below for all their hard work since June 2023.

Nominations deadline: 11:59pm on Saturday 1st June

The winner of the 2024 Grace Miller Award will be publicly recognised at the Annual Gathering Festival on Saturday 22nd June.

Please fill out this form and click submit.
