

FFWPU and WFWP Strings of the Heart - Hand Made Prayer Blanket Ministry

Mari Curry and Marjorie Buessing
November 22, 2019

Strings of the Heart is a joint prayer blanket ministry between FFWPU and WFWP. Our hope is to share love and prayers with brothers and sisters facing hardships. May the blankets feel like a warm hug from our Heavenly Parent and our True Parents and bring comfort.

This ministry stretches across borders. We collect six-by-six inch squares either knitted, crocheted or woven in any pattern from individuals across the nation and join them into blankets with one united prayer of hope. We also accept donations of yarn.

So far, we have sent out more than ten blankets to individuals and families who have experienced loss or serious illness. Our aim is to reach many more brothers and sisters with the message that we are one family and we care for each other.

If you want to help, you can send us your six-inch squares or donate yarn to:

Prayer Blanket requests

If there is someone you know or in your community who would benefit from a prayer blanket, please let us know and we will do our best to get one sent to them. Because this is a volunteer group we cannot guarantee that we will be able to serve all requests but we will do our best.
