Weekly Greeting

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Greetings! Once again, Happy True Heavenly Parents Day!!!

I pray that you had a wonderful experience in your local communities, celebrating the New Year of Cheon Il Guk with prayer, song, God's word, lots of food, and the spirit of our True Parents!

Recently we've had a lot of snow. As the song says, "Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow!" Even if you don't enjoy the cold, or the task of shoveling it all – still, it sure is beautiful.

Last night my wife challenged me "do you remember the goals we set for this new year?" I hesitated for a moment and thought to myself, "What exactly were those goals?" I wonder, how many of you are like me?

As we begin this 2nd year of Cheon Il Guk, let's make sure our goals are clear – and then work with our spouse to make a clear plan as to how we are going to fulfill those goals.

Let's always be aware of who we are and what we represent in TP's heart, and let's keep the 20/20 Motto active in our minds – by reciting it each day, and let's make this heavenly year a victorious one.

Finally – let's prepare our hearts for the anniversary of Foundation Day – and let's give our full support to those couples that will receive the Blessing.

All members are invited to attend – at Belvedere, Tuesday Feb 11 at 7:00 pm. There will be a live broadcast from Korea. (But look to your emails about parking – it may be limited because of the snow)

God Bless You

Light Thought for the Day:

House Cleaning

The adolescent daughter excitedly informed her parents that she had just gotten a job cleaning a neighbor's house.

The wife, knowing how seldom her daughter helped with any sort of housekeeping at home, asked, "How will you know what to do?"

"I'll be easy, Mom," she replied innocently. "I've been watching you for years."

Testimonies/reports

If you have a testimony or report to share please send it to me.
