

Parents Matching Convocations in Clifton, New Jersey

Crescentia DeGoede
November 8, 2015

Following this same formula, another Matching Advisor Training and Parents Matching Convocation was held in November at the Clifton Family Church in New Jersey.

The MA training went from November 6-7, 2015, while the PMC began November 7-8, 2015.

Participants from New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Connecticut, North Carolina, and Canada came to be a part of the weekend, 64 parents total.

Like many of the other locations, it was an extremely positive experience for those involved, with many new insights shared, and new bonds formed. Crescentia DeGoede, Debby Gullery, and Anne-Marie Mylar, gave wonderful presentations and facilitated discussions and Q & A sessions.

Here is what some of the NJ participants said:

“Wonderful presenters and content! I feel new pride in True Parents and our matching and Blessing tradition. I got substantial guidance on how to prepare for the process.”

“Simply excellent. I was inspired and learned so much and I am really impressed by the level of the entire program. Every aspect was very meaningful to me and I really loved the program.”

“The aspect of the convocation that was most meaningful to me was the deep vertical heart and wide embracing love to care for every unique family situation.”

“Thank you for not just giving information but also giving deep inspiration. I feel I have been to a wonderful workshop.”

“As my first experience, I felt refreshed and grateful for all the information given, and all the tools available, especially the online system which is so important for the community living far away. I made a determination to improve my relationship with my two children and apply all the advice given to the best of my ability in order to prepare them for the matching and Blessing.”

If you would like to experience the Parents Matching Convocation, or would like be trained as a Matching Advisor, the next Parents Matching Convocation will be taking place in Seattle on January 23-24 and the next Matching Advisor Training will be taking place January 22-23. The registration pages will be coming soon. To find out about when a Parents Matching Convocation or other valuable program will be headed to your area, sign up for our weekly newsletter on the right side.