 Daily TPs' Hoon Dok Words ***

God has been longing for the appearance of the victorious human ancestors on earth to complete His providence. Therefore, He led the 4,000-year course of restoration through indemnity to send Jesus Christ, the only begotten son, whom he called "My son." The conditions for indemnity were so difficult that it took 4,000 years! Despite God having searched so long for His only begotten son, Mary, the Judaic leaders and the Israelites, who should have created the environment and foundation for Jesus Christ, failed to fulfill their responsibilities. Mary should have offered sincere devotion to understand what Jesus' mission was. She, however, did not do this. Jesus died on the cross saying that he would come again.....

Happy Birthday for December and January Born

Shine City Project Report

On January 12, 2020, Shine City Project reunited with our honored faculty advisor, Tara Pike-Nordstrom! Tara is the UNLV Recycling Manager and Sustainability Coordinator, and she has a strong, loving heart for our Earth and the environment. For several years, she was our faculty advisor while Shine City Project was still a registered student organization at UNLV. Our most memorable cleanups that we have had with....
