*Daily TPs' Hoon Dok Words ***

"While walking the way of the Will, you can easily become estranged from the church. It means sometimes you are not within the church, but are living centered on yourself. If you are not within the church, that is, if you do not center your life on the church in all aspects but stand in the position of a third party estranged from the church, then you will drift away..."

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

....To do this, we must look beyond ourselves, beyond our own opinions and our differences. There is no solution within the political or legal spheres alone. Political victories, on either side, rarely bring about understanding, mutual respect and reconciliation. While the new administration in America has an opportunity and a responsibility to lead us beyond the current level of polarization, political leaders alone cannot bring about the kind of dialogue and cooperation that is needed.

Under the guidance of Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, we are committed to work toward building greater unity, and creating one family under God. Just one month ago, at the 4th Rally of Hope, Dr. Moon called upon us to "forgive the political leaders," and work to bring reconciliation to all people. It is our role as people of faith to promote this spirit of forgiveness, to encourage all Americans, and particularly leaders of our primary institutions of government, religion, civil society, business, the arts, the media, etc. to rise above this divide.....

Good afternoon Las Vegas Families,

As you may have heard, our SR4 ACLC will be holding a program focused on sharing the Blessing with key Christian clergy that we have close relationships with.

To prepare the best spiritual environment for this event, Rev. Jackson is asking for our prayers for the next 7 days (January 15 - January 21) towards this program.

The final notice and PICK UP 2021 New Calendar!
