A profound season of spiritual renewal is underway in Glanów. Since its commencement on May 28th, the 14-day Yeongseong workshop has blossomed into a transformative gathering, uniting members in deep reflection, healing, and shared purpose.

A Community Gathered in Grace

The workshop opened with a strong foundation of 43 dedicated participants, including our tireless staff members. The gathering was immediately elevated by the arrival of two Ansu sisters, who have been selflessly providing special Ansu sessions. Their presence has brought immense comfort and profound spiritual support to members in need, setting a tone of deep healing for the entire two weeks.

The CheonBo Event: A Bridge Between Worlds

Over the weekend of May 30th and 31st, the momentum of the workshop culminated in a beautifully orchestrated CheonBo event. The reach of this gathering extended far beyond the walls of Glanów:

In-Person Attendance: Over 50 members gathered together physically.

Global Connection: Approximately 190 participants registered and joined online, creating a unified network of prayer and devotion.

The atmosphere throughout the CheonBo event was remarkably warm, light, and uplifting. Participants could tangibly feel a positive shift - a clear testament that the spiritual world is becoming brighter, enriched by the presence of many good spirits walking alongside us.

Honoring a Legacy of Dedication

A deeply touching moment during the conclusion of the CheonBo event was the presentation of an appreciation certificate to Barnaba Czyśczoń. This award recognized his years of steadfast investment and unwavering dedication to the CheonBo brand. Though Barnaba could not be present, the certificate was proudly received on his behalf by his parents, Jacek and Mikyung Czyśczoń, serving as a beautiful reminder of the power of family and shared legacy.

Fellowship, Rest, and Reflection

Following the profound spiritual work of the weekend, the CheonBo event seamlessly transitioned into a joyous family gathering.

Community Grill: Members came together for an evening grill, with even more local members joining the festivities as the sun went down.

Rest for the Weary: This fellowship provided a much-needed and well-deserved moment of relaxation for the incredibly devoted CheonBo staff, who have quite literally been working day and night to make the event a success.

Unified Worship: The weekend concluded with the regional Sunday Service. Those in Głanów participated together, while the rest of our community joined in spirit and through screens from their own homes.

The Głanów Yeongseong workshop stands as a shining example of what we can achieve when we unite our hearts. It is a powerful reminder of the light we generate together, the healing we can offer one another, and the bright spiritual future we are actively building.
