Shine City Project Report

.... On this last Saturday of October, our Shine City Project volunteers drove from Las Vegas to Lake Mead to help assist park rangers in picking up litter from the Boulder Basin area of Lake Mead. Our efforts to clean up the shoreline and desert areas of the lake were in part for the nationwide Make a Difference Day which is celebrated on the fourth Saturday of October. We had fourteen volunteers representing Shine City Project while two of our volunteers were joining us for their first time! Though there was not so much trash that could be found, we were still able
