

7th Anniversary

December 13, 2019

The family is the school of love

Over 350 people gathered to join the festivities of the 7th anniversary of the founding of the Family Education and Empowerment Foundation at the beautifully decorated, International Peace Education Center in Las Vegas. The audience consisted of community and faith leaders, school personnel, youth and families.

After a warm welcome from FEEF President Mimi Morse, Bishop Ron Thomas from the Reconciliation Apostolic Ministries offered a prayer blessing for the evening's event.

To our tireless volunteers who gave support even if we had more guests show up than were confirmed, Wendy and Mrs. Lee improvised and embraced everyone who came. Thank you, Greg and Claudelina Smith, Sarah Bornemann, Kumae Jares, Jeff Silerio, Misato Koiso and her team of volunteers and others, you know who you are. Thank you!

Two of the many families who came to show support and enjoy the gathering were the students who finished two 7-weeks courses of Life Skills Abstinence education and a Korean language course, taught by Mrs. Sarah Borneman.

The Zavala and Childers families.

A Very SPECIAL DONATION PRESENTATION
BY Bishop Ki Hoon Kim, representing our True Mother.

“Thank you for believing in us!”

Concluding Remarks and Gratitude from the Heart

“I would like to take this opportunity to thank our Beloved True Parents who inspired me to embark on this adventure to start the FEEF foundation, which has proven to be challenging, exhausting, and demanding, yet worth undertaking.

For the past 7 years, we have worked with other community partners, as well as educational institutions to support, strengthen, and empower families. The journey has been made easier, thanks to our community partners, our dedicated staff, and volunteers. I would like to thank Rev. and Mrs. Doo for all their love, support and guidance. Rev. Doo, thank you for all the technical support as well, creating our program book covers for the past 5 years. To all our donors and supporters, to my brother Dieudonne Nkwethat and sister Heidi Iseda, thank you all for your support and dedication to our Heavenly Parents' dream of creating peaceful, healthy and happy families and communities.

Thank you ALL for celebrating the 7th anniversary of FEEF with us. I hope you will continue to join us in this journey, so that together we can make Heavenly Parents' and True Parents' ideal a reality! Aju!
