Baltimore Inner Harbor Visitors' Center

(Light St. between Phillips & the MD Science Center)

Bring creative Signs with Peace slogans

The "International Day of Peace" was established on September 21st in 1981 by the United Nations as a global call for ceasefire. On Friday, September 21st, a coalition of organizations, headed by the Ambassadors for Peace of the Universal Peace Federation, will stage a "Prayer Vigil for Peace", calling for peace to be realized through the recognition that humanity is "One Global Family Under God". Leaders and members of diverse religious institutions and civic organizations will participate in the celebration of this annual day of peace.
