We are thrilled to announce the winners of The 2nd "Color My Heart with Peace," an international children art competition.

The peace art competition project for children hosted by the Women's Federation for World Peace International (WFWPI) was launched on May 17th, 2021.

This year's winners' categories are divided into two age groups: 7-9 years old and 10-13 years old. Many children, parents, and teachers from all over the world submitted their entries, and we received 146 masterpieces from 31 countries. The works were reviewed and evaluated by a panel of judges: Prof. Hyoung Min Na and Prof. Mee Na Park of Kyung Hee University. The evaluation was based on the following criteria: creativity 30%, interpretation of the theme 30%, overall impression of the work 20%, and Facebook likes 20%.

In addition to the judging criteria, a total of 82 winners were selected, including 2 Gold, 2 Silver, 2 Bronze, 16 Merit, and 60 Achievement Award winners, taking into account age, country of participation, and other factors. Chiara Castellon (8 y.o.) from Argentine and Isabella Holdhus (12 y.o.) from Norway were chosen to be the proud Gold Winners of the 2nd "Color My Heart with Peace" contest.

The 2nd "Color My Heart with Peace" Online Exhibition will be held at www.facebook.com/2020dmz and our official website at www.cmhwp.com from August 24 to September 24, 2021. The WFWPI hopes that this art project will be a small step in a larger vision to realize peace, not only on the Korean Peninsula but also in the entire world, starting from the hearts and minds of our children, the future generations.
