

Colorado Family Church's Upcoming Sermon Series: Where are we going?

Mike and Adonia Hentrich
April 14, 2018

Dear community,

We have another exciting, packed Sunday tomorrow! For one, we will begin our new series titled, "Where are we going?"

This series is all about our vision for the future and what we are working towards, why we are investing so much into this church and the community. We all need a clear understanding of what we are all working towards and reminders when we lose sight of the goal or get discouraged. We hope you all really enjoy this series. You will find the schedule below.

Also, as we announced last Sunday, we have asked you all to nominate members of our community that you felt really brought the spirit and vision of our founders to our community through their actions and attitudes. We have those awards that we will be presenting this Sunday. Please come and join us in congratulating the recipients.

Lastly, Pastor Mike will be sharing his, "Who Are We?" presentation after service at 12:15 in the French Ministry Room (right next to the cafe). Whether you are new or a long time member, you will get the opportunity to hear a modern presentation on where we are going as a community and who we are.
