

Local New Year's Eve Service & At-Home Resources

Michael Hentrich
December 30, 2018

Dear community,

We are excited to welcome in the new year of 2019 together as a community. As you may have seen in our service announcements, we will be holding a local evening service tomorrow (Monday) evening. We will begin at 9pm and the main focus will be taking time to reflect and pray on 2018 and what we want 2019 to look like in our lives and in our community. If you would like to stay til midnight and take additional time for reflection, prayer, conversation, etc., we will have a sparkling cider toast at midnight.

Whether you can make it to the service or not, please take some time to do this. Whether you felt that 2018 was a year of blessings and growth or a year of hardship and struggle, this is our opportunity to offer our year to God and ask for His guidance and direction in our lives. This can also be done together as a family, with loved ones, parents and children, to make a plan together on how to improve our family relationships.

For those of you that can't make it, here are some of the resources we will be using. Please use them if you find them valuable.
