Dear Community,

I would like to invite you to another outdoor challenge. I'm thinking of the Manitou Incline in Colorado Springs. I know it's a drive for most, but there's nothing like it in Denver.

What: Outdoor challenge

Where: Manitou Incline, Manitou Springs, CO

When: Saturday February 13, Meet around 12 noon at base of trail

Who: Best for kids 10 and above and adults/parents, although kids younger are certainly invited.

Why: For the challenge of it, of course! And the view...

This will be a challenge! Feel free to take your time. Please bring your own lunch, and I encourage you to bring snacks to help refill your energy along the way.

The parking right at the base is paid parking. There is free parking available at this address with a free shuttle to the trailhead: 10 Old Mans Trail, Manitou Springs, CO 80829.
